

CENTENNIAL SOCIETY

PHILANTHROPY CIRCLES AND BENEFITS

The Centennial Society was established to recognize and honor donors to the Centennial Campaign who have provided the highest levels of financial support during the campaign's life. The Centennial Society consists of five distinct philanthropy circles, each with a unique name and set of benefits for qualifying donors. It is open to alumni, friends, and corporate/foundation partners alike.

Drexel/Francis Philanthropy Circle

- Cumulative campaign giving $1M+
- Circle honors Xavier's foundress, Saint Katharine Drexel, and longest-serving president, Dr. Norman C. Francis, '52
- Benefits include an invitation to the President's Leadership Breakfast, a commemorative Xavier Centennial pin, listing on the Centennial donor wall, VIP access to all Homecoming events, priority seating at all University events, a special listing in Xavier Gold, and private dinner with the President and Chairperson of the Board annually

Leo Sam Philanthropy Circle

- Cumulative campaign giving $500K - $999.9K
- Circle honors Xavier's generous alumnus donor, Leo P. Sam, Jr., '52
- Benefits include an invitation to the President's Leadership Breakfast, a commemorative Xavier Centennial pin, listing on the Centennial donor wall, priority check-in at Homecoming, priority seating at special University events, and a special listing in Xavier Gold

Sr. Agatha Ryan Philanthropy Circle

- Cumulative campaign giving $250K - $499.9K
- Circle honors the first Sister of the Blessed Sacrament to serve as President of Xavier University
- Benefits include an invitation to the President's Leadership Breakfast, a commemorative Xavier Centennial pin, listing on the Centennial donor wall, priority check-in at Homecoming, and priority seating at special University events

Anthony Rachal Philanthropy Circle

- Cumulative campaign giving $100K - $249.9K
- Circle honors former Vice President for Administration Anthony Rachal, '49
- Benefits include an invitation to the President's Leadership Breakfast, a commemorative Xavier Centennial pin, listing on the Centennial donor wall, and priority check-in at Homecoming

Cornerstone Philanthropy Circle

- Cumulative campaign giving $25K - $99.9K
- Benefits include an invitation to the President's Leadership Breakfast, a commemorative Xavier Centennial pin, and a listing on the Centennial donor wall